The Lending Office of The Savings Bank recently sponsored a free First Time Homebuyer Seminar at the Bank's Main Office in Wakefield. Several local residents, including John and Dina Kenney (seated) and Haley and Chris D'Onofrio (standing, second and third from left) attended the seminar to learn more about the home buying process from area professionals who provided information about their respective areas of expertise in the home buying process. Speakers and seminar coordinators included Stephen LeSaffre, Senior Mortgage Originator, The Saving Bank; Attorney Mark Simeola, of the law firm of Simeola & Simeola; Realtor Chris Barrett, Christopher J. Barrett Realtors; insurance agent Pat Norris, TSB Thibodeau Insurance Agency; and Kathleen Beaulieu, Senior Vice President, The Savings Bank. Home inspector John Carroll, ABC Home Inspections, Inc. was also a seminar speaker.
