Maria Consoli Joins The Savings Bank as Andover Branch Manager

(Wakefield, MA) –Maria C. Consoli of Methuen has joined The Savings Bank as Manager of the Andover Branch Office.

Maria joined The Savings Bank with more than 30 years of banking and managerial experience within the banking industry, most recently with Cambridge Savings Bank where she was an Assistant Vice President and Manager of the Bank's Concord, Massachusetts office. Prior to that, Maria was an Assistant Branch Manager in the Haverhill, Massachusetts and Salem, New Hampshire offices of the Pentucket Bank, and Branch Manager of the Lexington office of TD Banknorth, formerly Boston Federal Savings. She has also worked with Southern New Hampshire Bank as an Assistant Branch Manager in the Andover office, as well as Andover Bank where she was the Branch Manager of the Lawrence and Tewksbury offices.

Maria received several awards throughout her career at Andover Bank, including quarterly Pacesetter Awards and Sales Champion Awards. Maria was twice named Sales Champion of the Year.

She attended the University of Lowell and has completed supervisory skills training at the New England Banking Institute in Boston.

“I am pleased to welcome Maria Consoli to The Savings Bank as the Manager of the Andover Branch Office,” Brian D. McCoubrey, President and Chief Executive Officer said. “She has many years of banking and management experience as well as creating and building quality relationships with customers and staff. Her experience and skills will be assets to the Andover Office as well as to The Savings Bank.”
